Biographical Information:

Randall holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Northeastern State University, a Master of Divinity with Biblical Languages from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and a Doctor of Ministry degree from George W. Truett Theological Seminary.

He is committed to upholding the Four Fragile Freedoms of the Baptist tradition, building ecumenical relationships with other Christians, fostering interfaith partnerships and fighting for a biblical justice for all people. He has served on many committees and boards for various Baptist and civic organizations, including service as the 2012-13 chair of the board of directors for the Baptist Joint Committee for Religious Liberty in Washington, D.C. He later served as the 2016-17 co-chair of the Religious Liberty Council.

Randall served as pastor of NorthHaven Church in Norman, Oklahoma, from 2006 to 2017, and before that pastored churches in Nickerson, Kansas; North Richland Hills, Texas; and Bedford, Texas. He is married to Missy, and they have two children: Cole and Tanner.
